Patient Rights

1. Policy Statement
Erlanger is committed to recognizing and respecting that each patient is an individual with unique health care needs. We are also committed to providing compassionate care at each touch point. Erlanger does not tolerate any form of harassment or discrimination.

2. Who Should Read This Policy?
All EHS workforce, including contract personnel

3. Purpose
EHS should inform patients of their rights and responsibilities as a patient at EHS. When possible, patients will be provided with the notice of patient rights pamphlets during the registration process.

4. Definitions
N/A

5. The Policy
The following patient rights will be provided, when possible, during the registration process:

You, the patient, have the right to:

- Be treated without regard to your race, nationality, religion, beliefs, age, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, or any other basis prohibited by federal, state, or local law.
- Have language services provided to you in your primary language during the delivery of all significant healthcare services at no cost.

You have the right to considerate and respectful care, including the right to:

- Be safe from abuse or harassment.
- Wear appropriate clothing or cultural or religious items as long as doing this does not interfere with your treatment.
- See your bills and have them explained to you.
- Have your complaints handled fairly. Your care will not be affected if you share any complaints with us.

You have the right to privacy, including the right to:

- Receive care in an environment that preserves dignity and contributes to a positive self-image.
- Have the contents of your medical record protected, whether oral or in paper or electronic format, from unauthorized disclosure.
- Not have any photos or videos taken of you unless you agree to this, except as needed to treat you.

You have the right to be involved in all aspects of your care. This includes the right to:

- Participate in your treatment/care plan, discharge plan and/or pain management plan.
- Have your wishes for advance care (living will, power of attorney) or organ donation followed.
- Refuse tests or treatment.
- Leave the hospital (unless prohibited by law) and to be told what might happen if you do. If you leave the hospital against medical advice, we will not be responsible for any medical or financial issues that may result.
- Have a support person of your choice with you in the hospital or clinic exam room unless the presence of that person interferes with your care or other patients' care.

To keep you safe, we encourage you and your family to become actively involved in your care by:

- Confirming to us which part of your body will be operated on.
- Confirming we check your ID band before we give you medicine or blood.
- Confirming we clean our hands before caring for you. You may ask us to clean our hands if you don't see us clean them before caring for you.
- Confirming we are wearing our ID badge.
- Asking questions.
- Understanding the medicines you are taking and why.

It is your responsibility to:

- Give us truthful and complete information about your health, medicines, and insurance.
- Ask any questions you may have about your treatment and what you need to do to take care of yourself.
- Follow your treatment plan.
• Give us a copy of any living will, power of attorney, or donor forms you may have.
• Follow all hospital and clinic rules, including the no smoking policy.
• Maintain the privacy of staff, other patients, and visitors by not recording or photographing them without their consent.
• Accept that bad language or bad behavior will not be tolerated and may be grounds for your removal from the facility if not an emergency.
• Respect other patients, visitors, staff, and property.
• Tell us if you are concerned about or notice any changes in your condition.
• Go to all of your appointments and be on time.
• Let us know if you are concerned about your privacy.
